30 Jul 2025 | 15:04 CEST | Italy | Machinery-Printing Trade  Mergermarket

- Vendors include Maria Caccin, Picello family, with a combined 100% stake
- Legance, Corporate Financial Advisors advised Impronta Digitale
- Tikedo is controlled by PE firm White Bridge Investments

Tikedo, an Italian producer of self-adhesive labels controlled by private equity firm White Bridge Investments, has acquired Impronta Digitale, a producer of high-quality self-adhesive labels using digital technologies.

This was according to a joint Italian-language Tikedo press release that did not disclose financial terms.

The vendors were Maria Caccin with a 40% and Linda and Ludovico Picello, each of whom held a 30% stake prior to the transaction.

Impronta Digitale had Legance as legal advisor and Corporate Financial Advisors as financial advisor.

Tikedo was advised by Target on legal matters, Athena carried out financial and tax due diligence, and Proj.Eco carried out health, safety, and environmental due diligence.

Impronta Digitale posted revenues of EUR 5m in 2024, the release concluded.
